

THE SLEEPING BLANKET

While Birdy and Hanona are playing in the yard,
Blue passes by, and he looks sad.
They asked him why he is looking sad!

He told them that he couldn't sleep last night, although he drink the milk, and doing the exercises. Hanona suggested that could be from sleeping in a bed of hay.

Mom get out from the home and told them that she had a special blanket since birth. Maybe will solve his problem.

In the night, Blue putting his mom's blanket on the bed and lays. He found it so soft and warm, so he falls asleep right away and starts snoring

In the next morning, he wakes up from the singing of the birds, and looks rested and happy. He told himself that this blanket is magical, so He folds it and hugs it, then leaves the room.

Mom told them the secret of those blank it is a gift from her mother, and she knitted it for her with her own hands. BIRDY asked her mother to give her a one like it but Mom said she don't have another one and she do not know how to make such. Thus, Blue declared that he will discovered the secret of this blanket.

The father puts the blanket under a microscope to discover its secret.

He declared that he found the secret. It is made of natural cotton, woven from soft stitches, and blended with natural rose water.

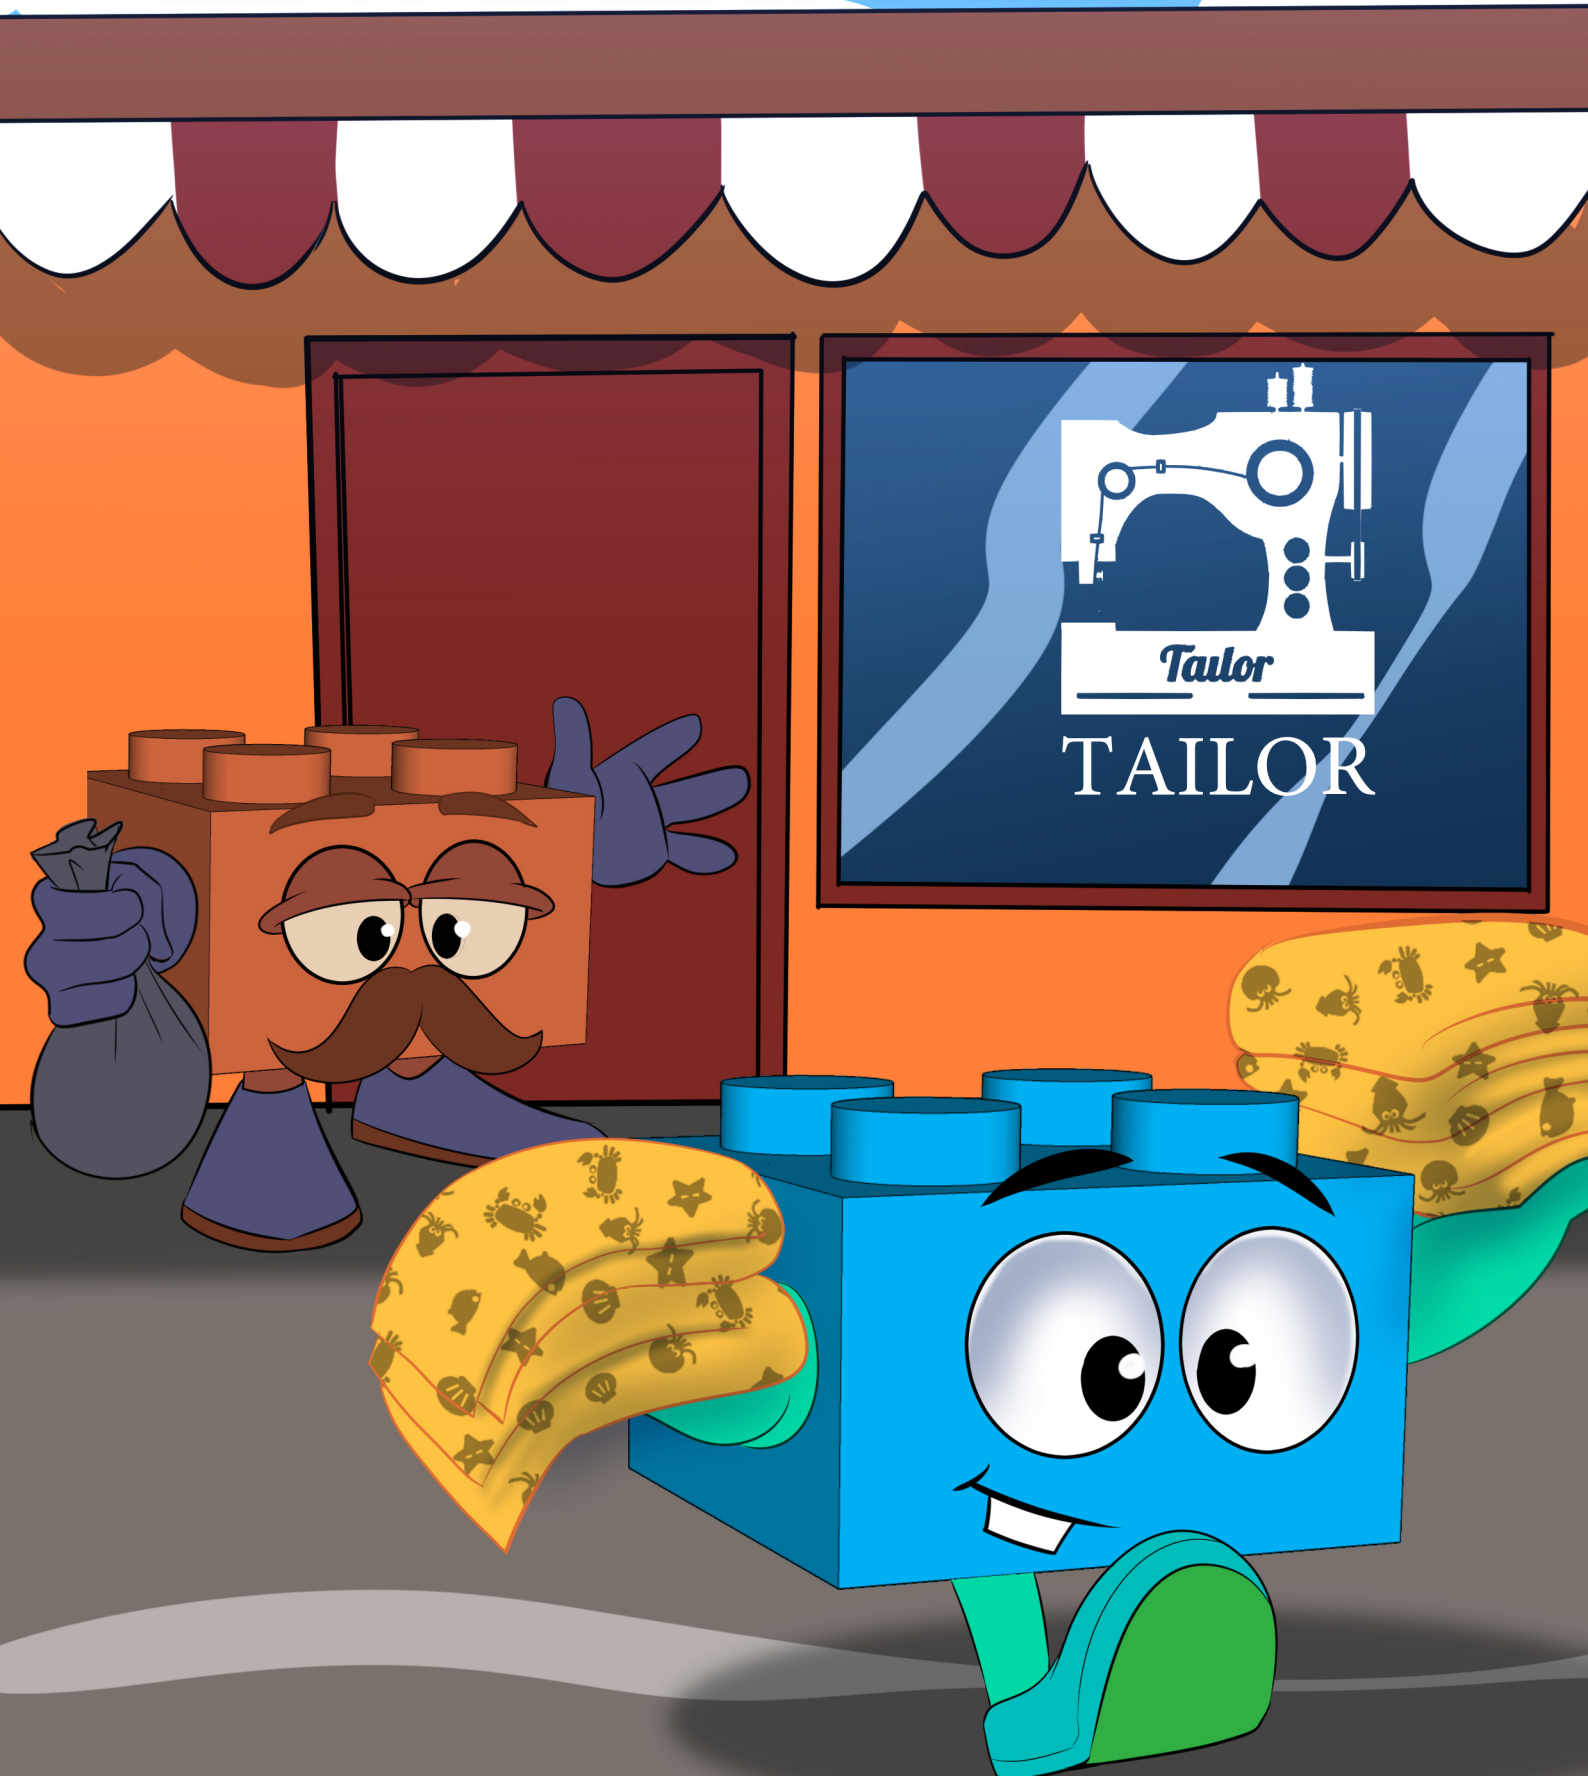

BLUE was surprised but father explained that grandmother loved her daughter so much, so she gave her something of her own making.

Blue gives the tailor a pocket of money and receives a number of blankets from him which made from natural cotton with rose water and soft stitches.

DAD told them that blankets are his gift to them so they can enjoy a peaceful sleep.

Everyone are covered with new blankets, and snores with a deep and loud voice.

BLUE can't sleep again from all the snoring.
He asked them to Lower their voices!
HAHA!

