

A TRIP WITH THE CAPTAIN

Once upon a time, Pirate Joe and his friends, Father Cuppy, Blue and Happy the clown are closing to his boat at the dock, which is made of Lego blocks.

BLUE asked the captain to drive the boat , but PIRATE JOE refused. FATHER CUPPY told him that he can drive this time. Just don't flip it as the last time. Everybody laughs.

When everybody become in the boat. The captain was at the wheel. Father Cuppy was rolling a rope, and Blue and Happy were pushing the boat from the dock.

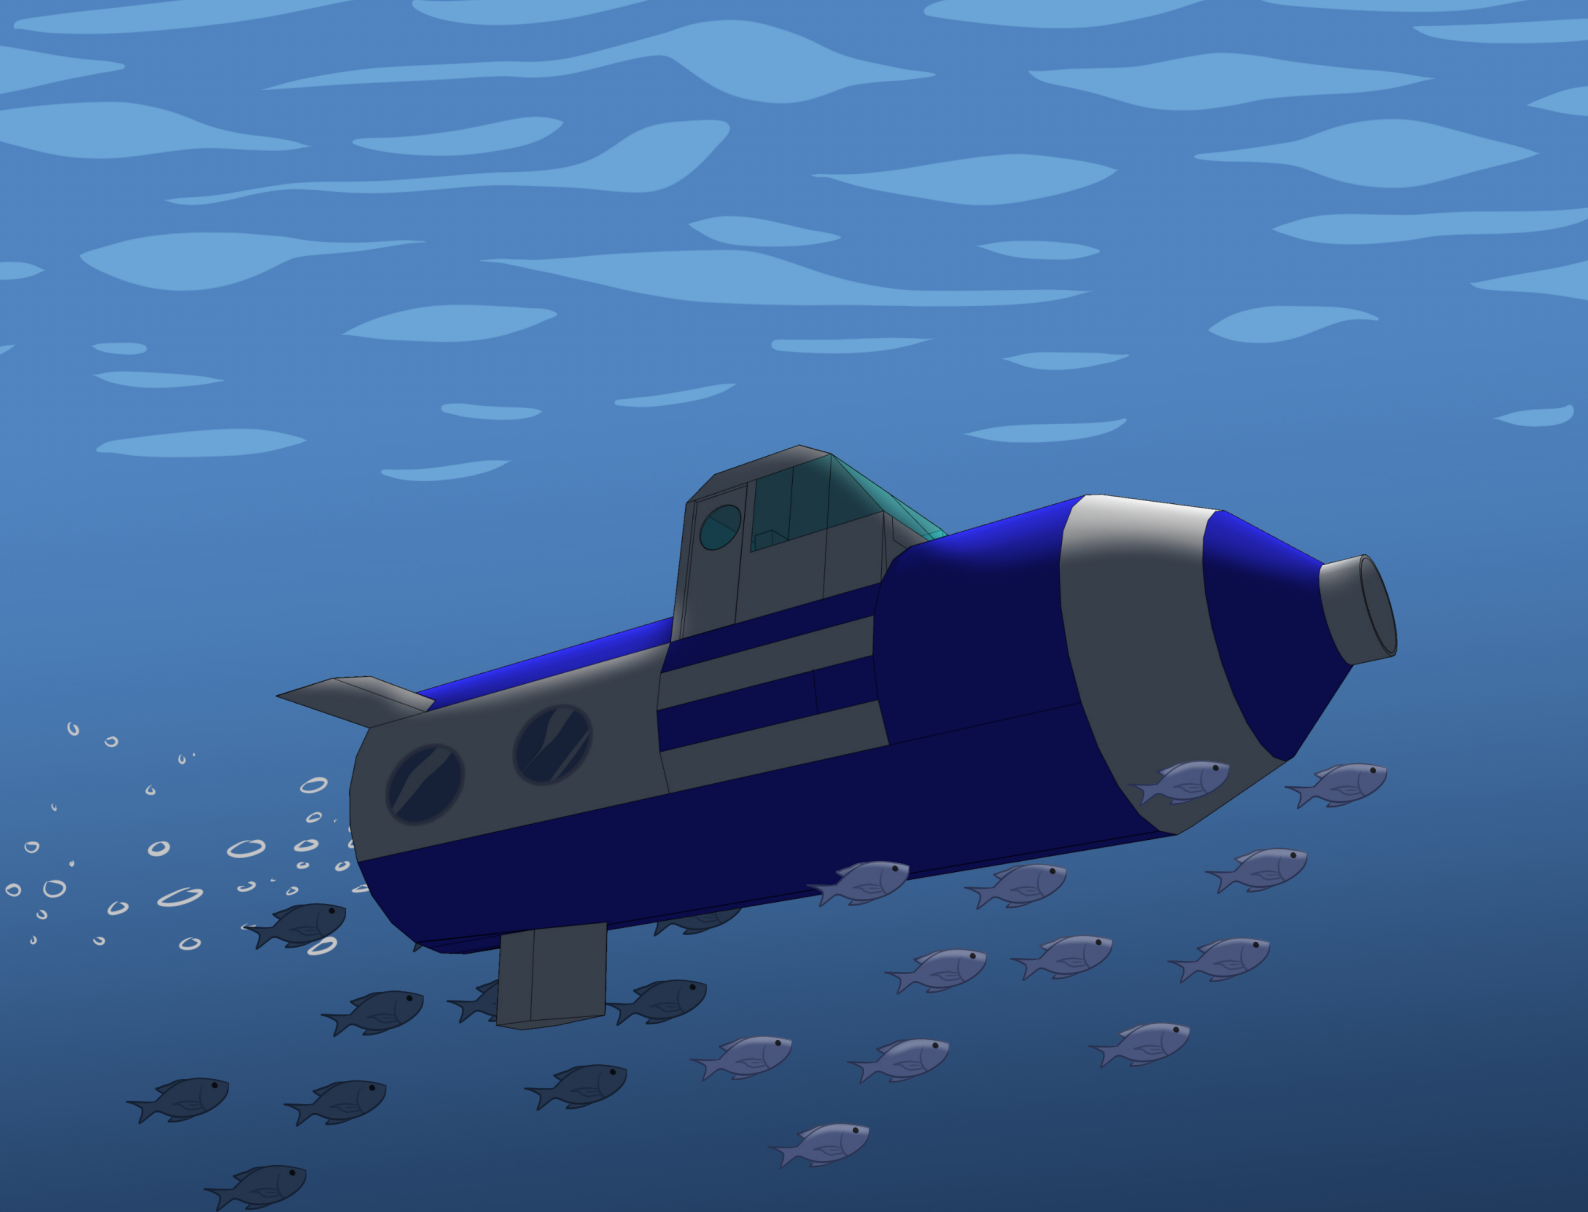

After that Father Cuppy agrees that blue drives the boat, but lightning and thunder starts immediately, and strong wind blows and big waves start to form.

Blue looks disappointed, and the captain starts to laugh while Father Cuppy looks worried! When it started raining, Pirate Joe show them his latest boat features. When he is pulling a plug.

Something starts happening to the boat. The little lego blocks rearrange themselves and suddenly it is transforming to a submarine.

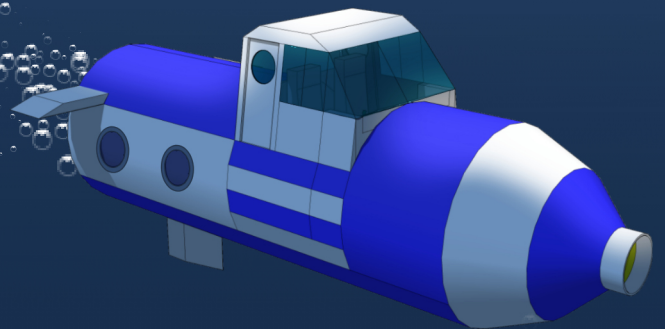

The sea keeps calming down as the boat sinks further down. Everybody looks through the windows.

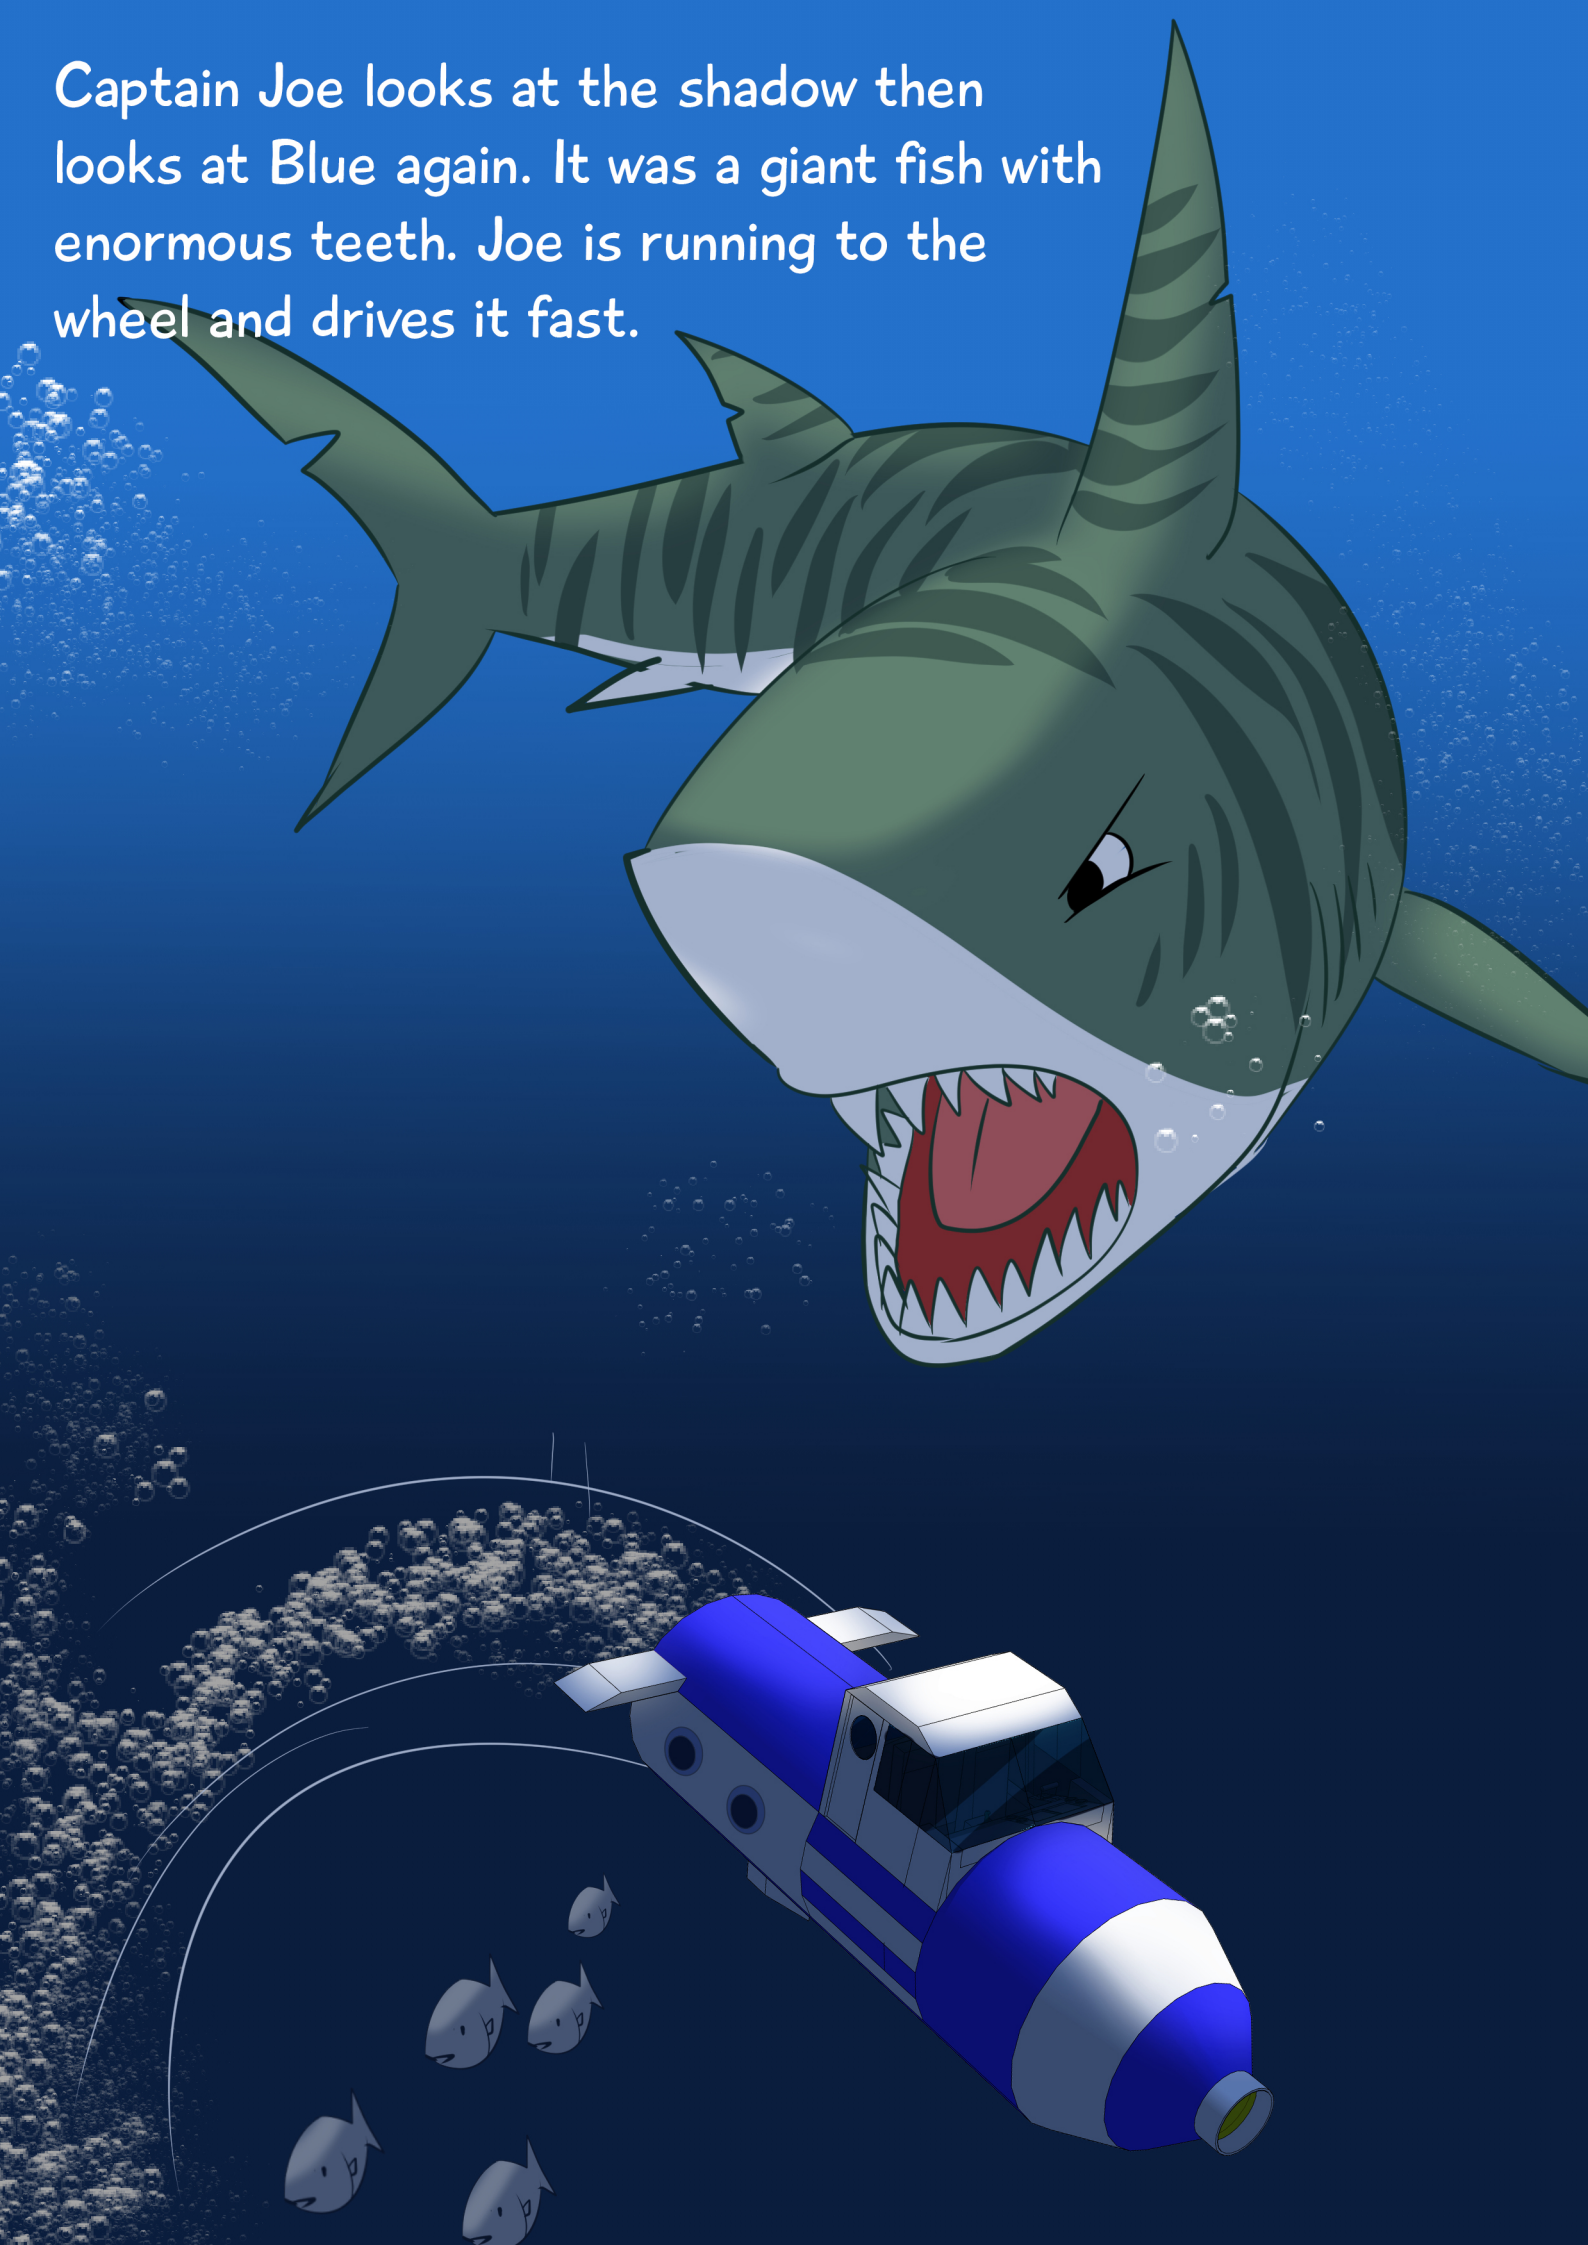

Different types of fish pass around. There are many different and beautiful types of the sea flora and fauna. Suddenly Blue is pointing at a big shadow that is closing to them which enlarges as it's coming closer.

Captain Joe looks at the shadow then looks at Blue again. It was a giant fish with enormous teeth. Joe is running to the wheel and drives it fast.

Happy, the clown, runs scared around the boat.

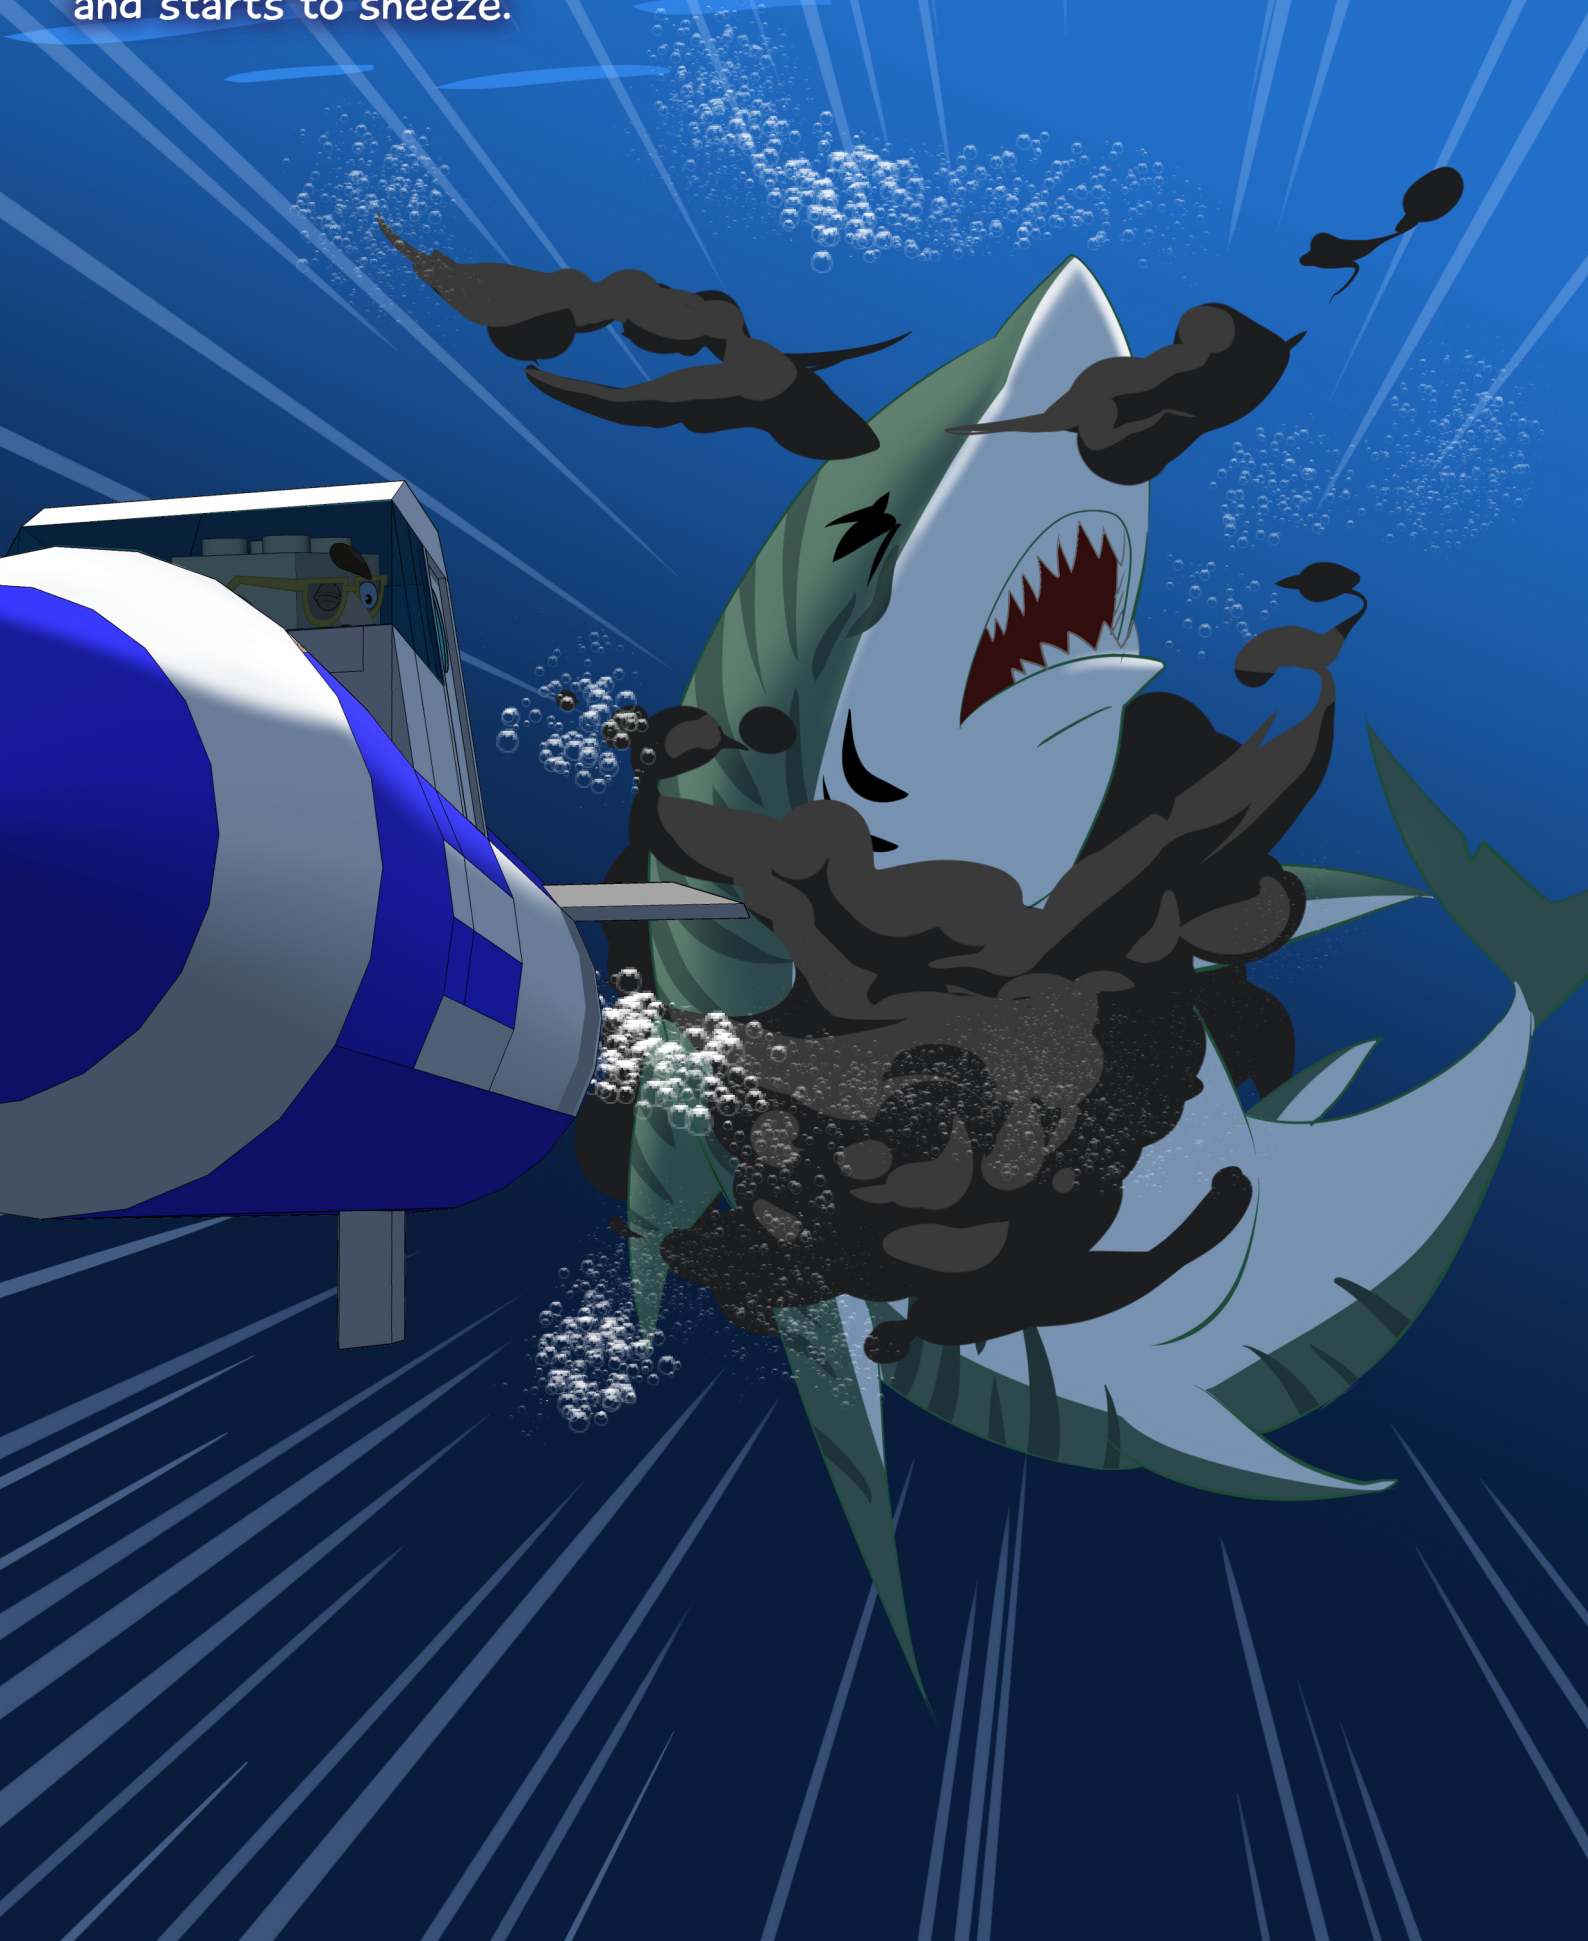

Blue is looking at the window.

The giant fish is speeding at them. It opens its mouth and tries to swallow them, but the boat's fire engines start and it shoots fire, and go to the surface.

PIRATE JOE asked Father CUPPY to press the big green button, so the back part of the submarine starts to rotate and drops small black seeds that they look like a cloud. The fish passes through the cloud and starts to sneeze.

A blue and white submarine is flying through the air above a shark's open mouth. The shark is white with a green dorsal fin and a red tongue. The submarine is tilted upwards and has a blue and white cylindrical object attached to its side. The background is a dark blue ocean with white waves and splashes.

The fish is closing again and looks much angrier than before. It has big red lines in its eyes because of paper gun.

The boat is almost at the surface level. The fish is opening its mouth again and the submarine is seconds away from falling in its mouth.

Right in this moment, the fish closes its mouth, and the boat reaches the surface. The fish is pushing it away, and the submarine flies in the air.

Everybody celebrates the moment, but the boat dives back in. The fish starts to circle around it like a shark.

Happy scratches his head and thinks of something, and starts to inflate balloons.

Everybody start to tie balloons for the boat. The boat starts to ascend in the air slowly. The fish attacks and jumps in the air after them, but couldn't reach them.

The boat flies to the nearest land. They start popping balloons to descend. Pirate Joe is dropping the anchor. The ship is slowing down. PIRATE JOE told them that "A home is where the anchor drops!"

The pirate cube, the father, happy, and Blue are sitting on the table. Happy is holding a balloon, and Blue is holding a ship of cubes.
