

THE TAILOR

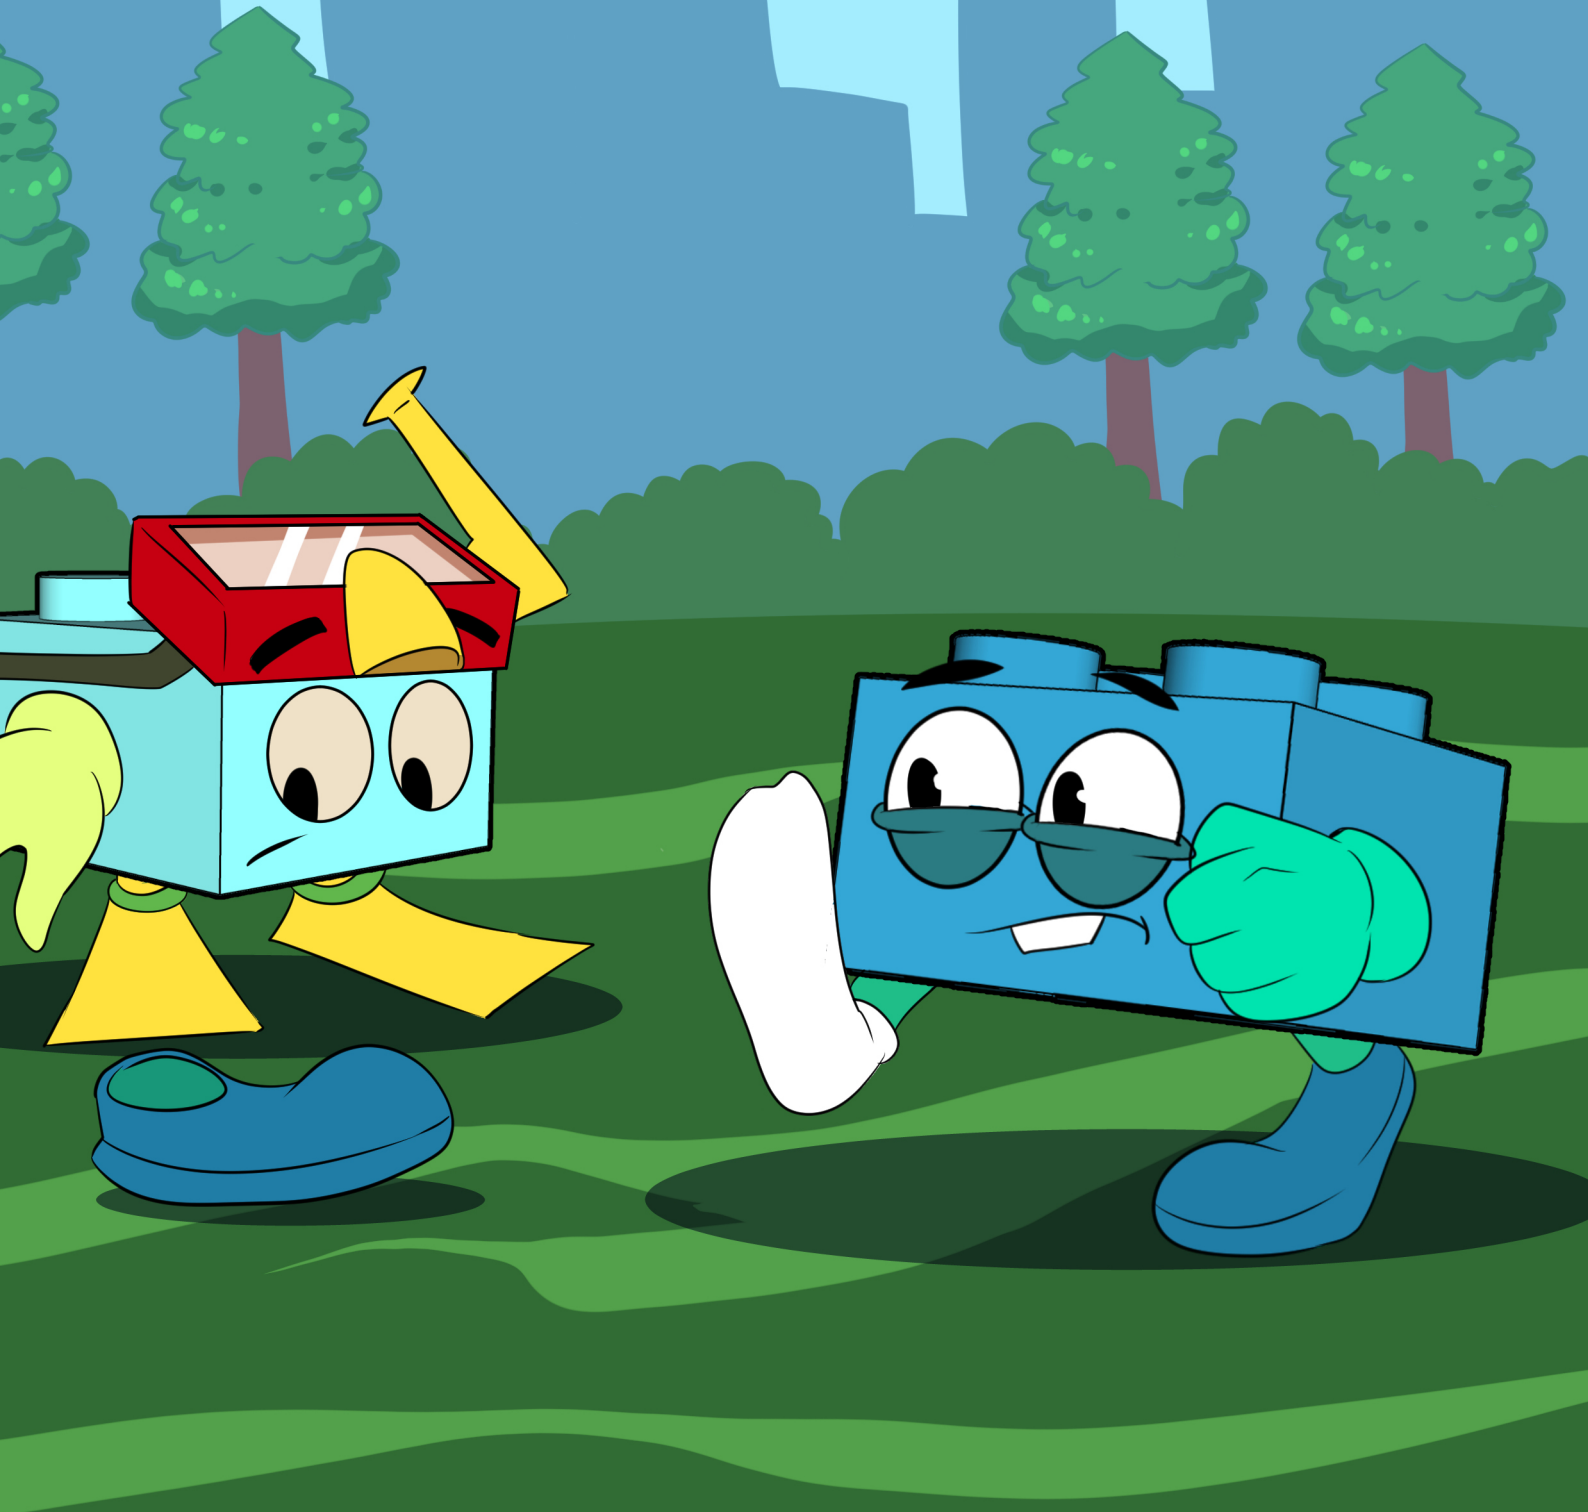

Swimmy, Blue, Father Cuppy and the Pirate separated in two teams – old vs young guys to play football. Father Cuppy scored the first goal.

Blue also determined to score a goal, but when he prepares to shoot and kicks the grass and falls to the ground. The ball is going outside of the field

While Father Cuppy and the Pirate were laughing, Swimmy gives a hand to Blue. He picked his fallen shoes, and put in it.

He noticed that the sole is almost separated from the upper part. Blue starts crying because it's his favorite shoes.

PIRATE JOE suggested that he can go to the tailor in the forest to fix it. SWIMMY was thinking that they are evil, but father clarified that they have a special magic. Blue decided to go and ask Swimmy to come with him so they can continue the match.

Blue and Swimmy go through the forest looking for the Tailor tree.

They see a tree full of colored strings and a chimney from which smoke gets out in the sky, so they go after the smoke.

After a while, they are in front of a massive tree, which girded with colored strings.

Blue is knocking on a door in front of him.

After a second, a person in a green hat opens, holding a needle in his hand and trying to insert the thread in it. Blue asked him nicely to repair his shoes, but TAILOR told them that his customers are rich people. He dismissed them because they don't have money.

Blue starts to cry again. A cuckoo bird hears the cry of the boys and is coming to check what's going on. The boys told him the story, so he offered to help them if they promised to give him fabric and silk.

Blue accepted the deal, so CUCKOO told them the plan that tailor leaves after lunch with a pot full of fabric. Then he gets rid of it somewhere in the forest.

If they follow him, they'll find the place he puts the fabric in, and then they can issue a violation against him for polluting the environment, and have the fabric!

Swimmy and Blue are hiding in the bushes near the tailor tree. They are almost tired. The tailor is coming out of the door and the boys are waking from the noise. The boys go after the tailor. On every couple of steps, he is stopping and starts to look around if somebody is following him.

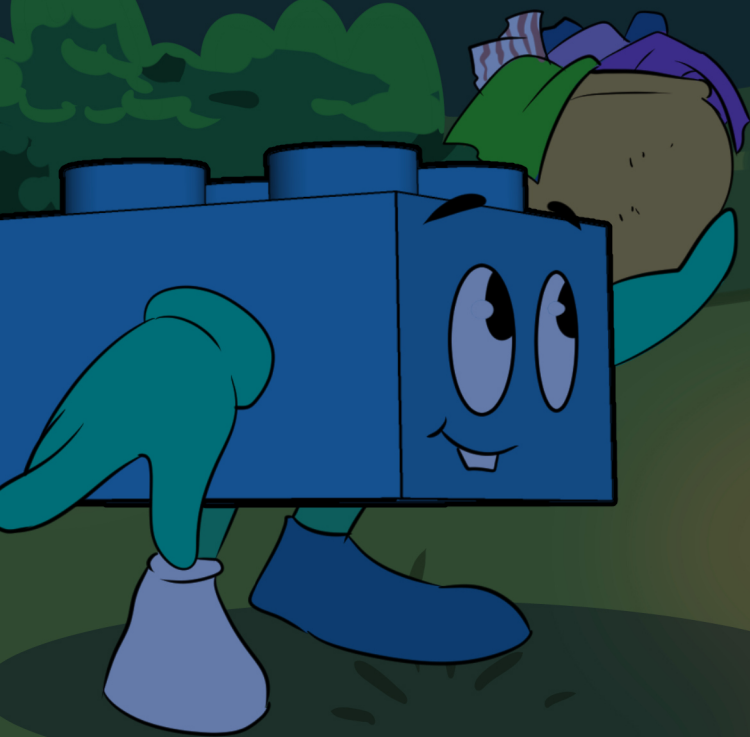

The tailor makes one final look around and puts down the pot in the river and runs away. Blue is running towards the pot and grabs it.

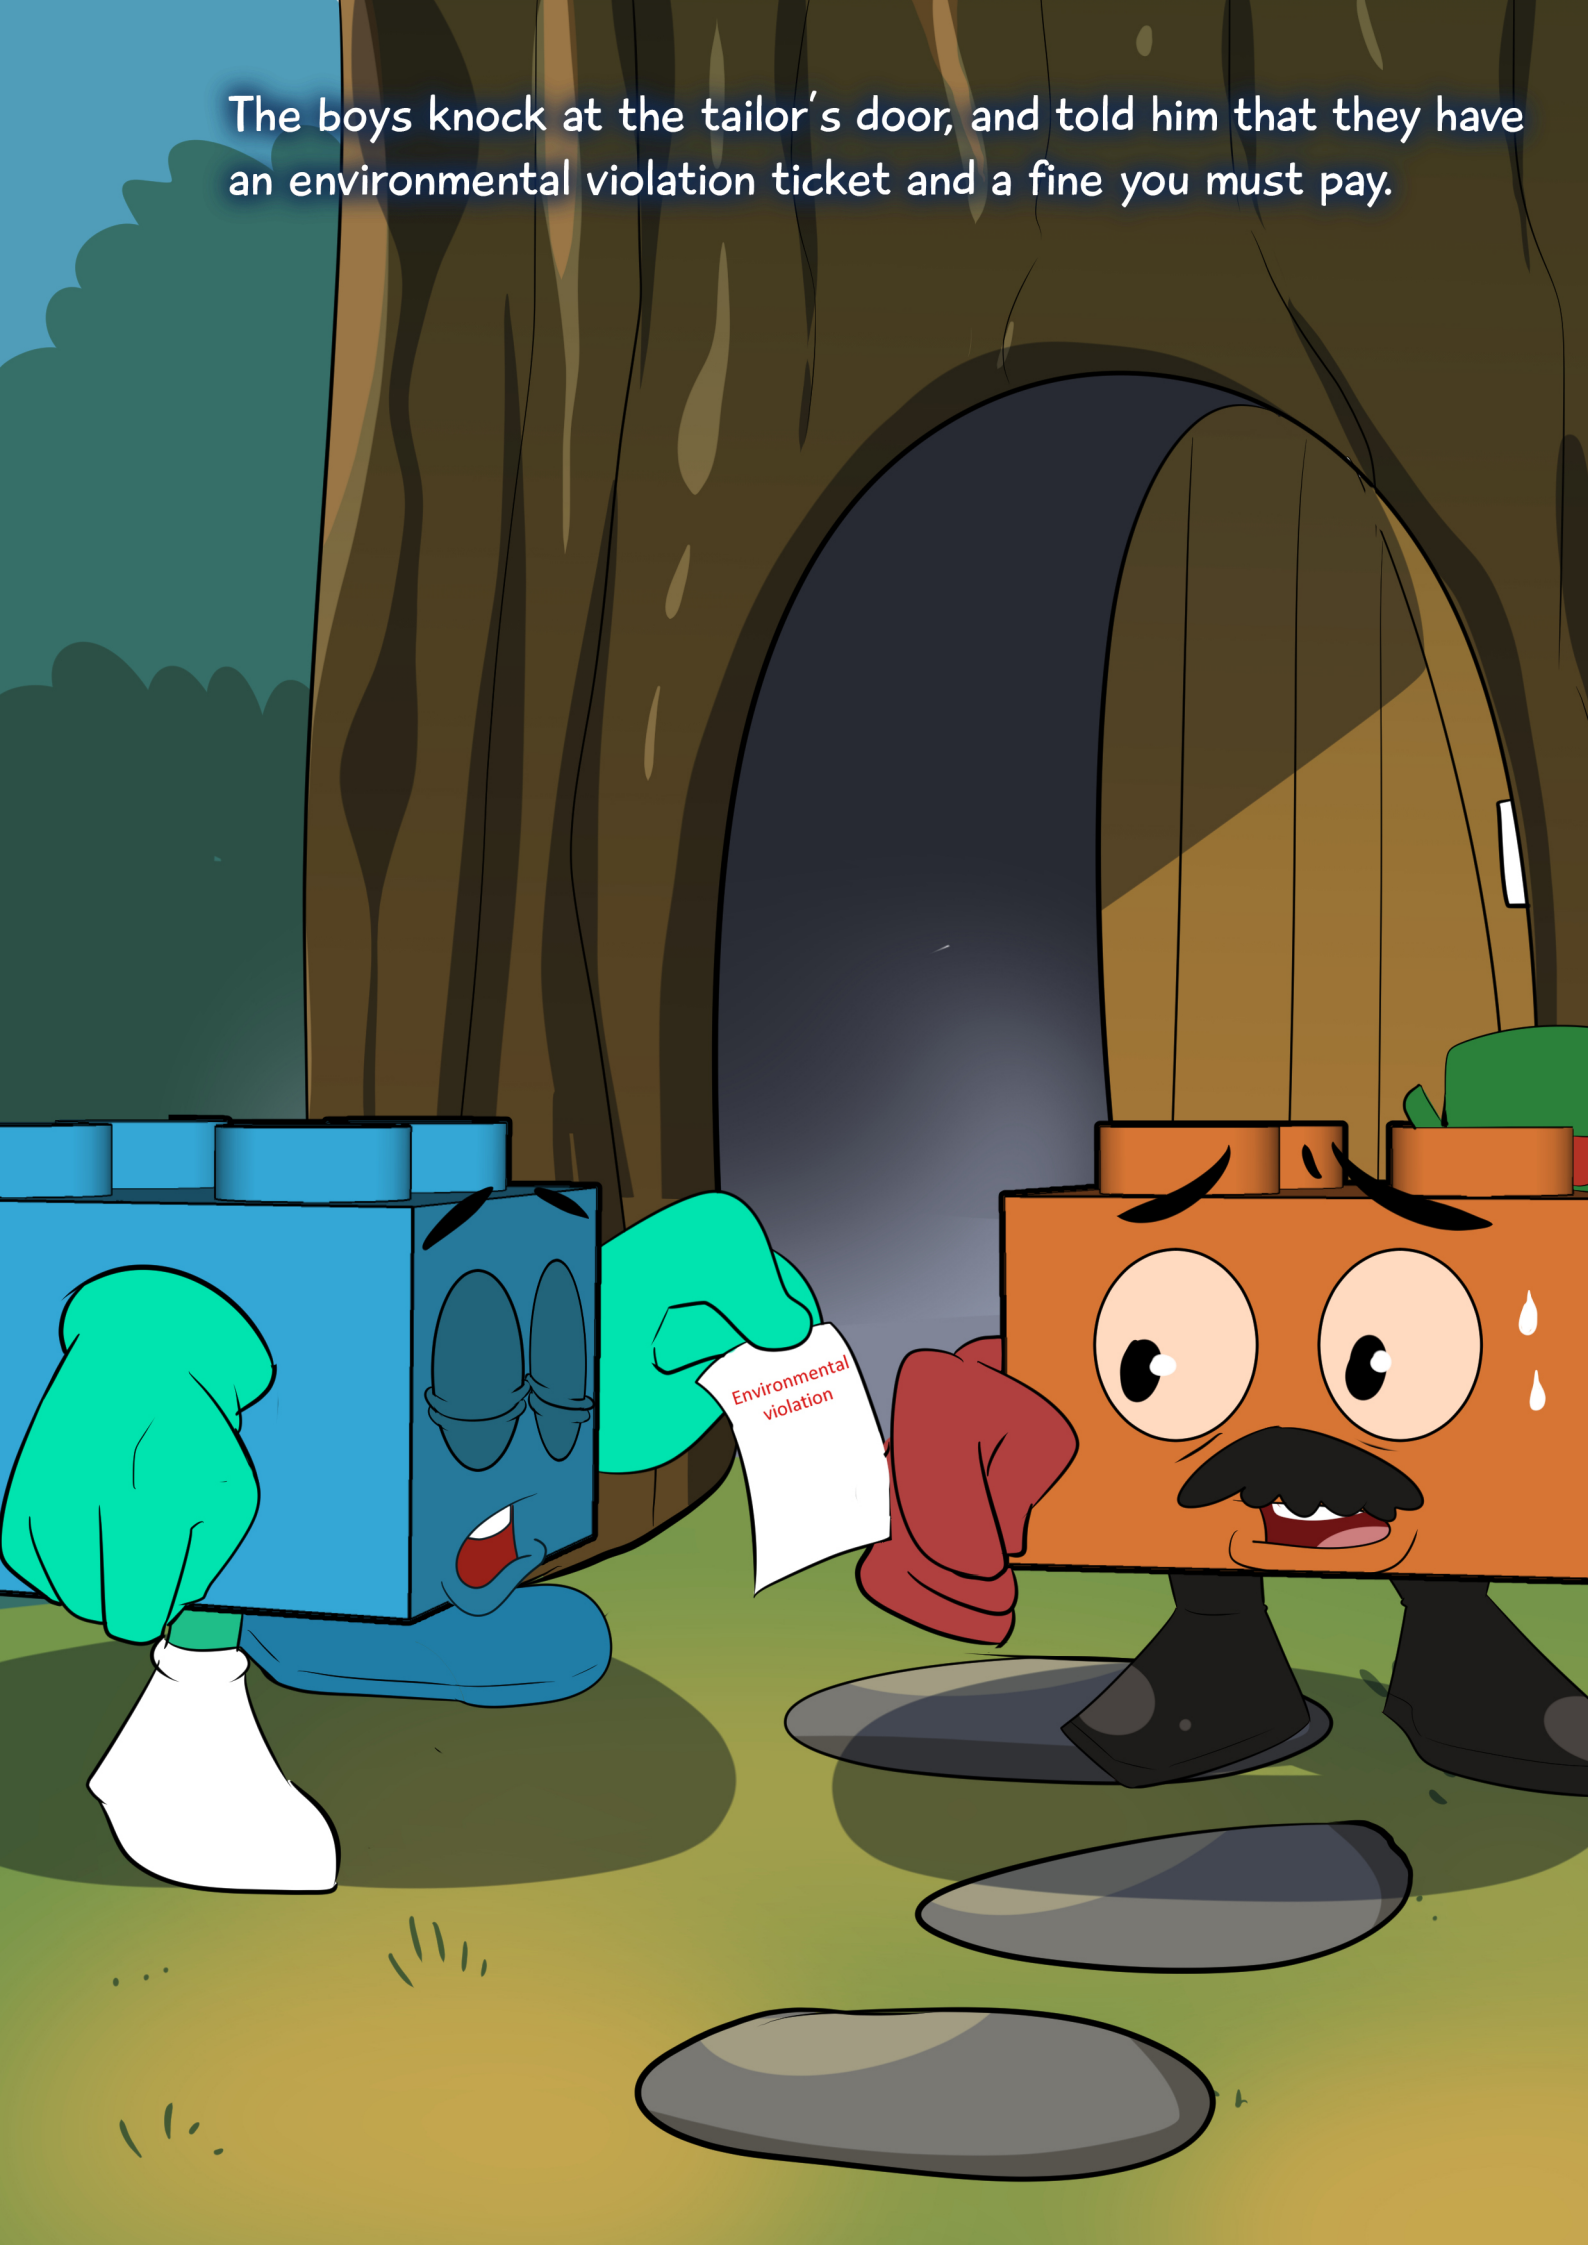

In about a minute, they walk around in the forest and search for the Cuckoo bird to give him the pot.

Cuckoo Bird said thanks them because he will build a silken nest from it.

The boys knock at the tailor's door, and told him that they have an environmental violation ticket and a fine you must pay.

Tailor accepted to fixed Blue shoes and promise to get rid of excess fabric by putting it in the clothes container. Blue shoes looks like a brand new now! The tailor shuts his door, and the boys were going home.

The tailor throws the fabric in the clothes container.

The boys are playing football again. Blue takes the ball from Father Cuppy, he runs to the goal , prepares to shoot and again ripping his shoes again!

